

Angela M Lalime

July 15, 1933 - January 8, 2024

Angela Marvin Lalime, nee Donger, born in Brixton, London on July 15, 1933, of Palm Desert, California passed away on January 8, 2024 at age 90 ending her battle with Alzheimer's Disease.

She was married to Roger Pierre Lalime on August 27, 1964, who predeceased her in January 2015. Angela was a dedicated homemaker taking care of her family with years of patience and love.

Early years of education she attended La Retraite High School and London Literary Institute in Balham. She worked for BBC London on leaving school then in 1964 emigrated to USA. She received her associate degree from Laney College in Oakland, California and her Adult Teaching Credential in California

She became involved in care support as director of a senior centre in Kensington and an Alzheimer Respite Centre in El Cerrito, both in California.

Retiring in 1998 she became interested and involved, with her husband Roger, in metaphysics and became a practicing medium.