

Blaine Alison Clark

September 2, 1960 - March 6, 2026

BLAINE ALISON (HARRISON) CLARK, of Desert Hot Springs, California passed away on March 6, 2026 at the age of 65 at Eisenhower Medical Center. She was born and raised in Livonia, Michigan to the late Daniel and Joan (née Ecksmith). She was preceded in death by her sisters Dana and Gail.

Blaine was married to Joseph F. Clark III in 1980 (div. 1989), and moved to Delaware County, PA, and had two sons. She attended Trident College in South Carolina and continued her education at Temple University and Wharton School of Business at UPenn. She worked as a bookkeeper and benefits manager, and later moved to providing care for disabled and elderly patients.

Blaine was a natural caretaker. Throughout her life she took in and cared for nieces and nephews, co-workers, and friends. Professionally, she worked with special needs children and eventually transitioned to being a live-in caretaker. She also found time to bottle-feed, foster, and adopt kittens needing a home. Blaine is survived by her two sons, David Joseph (43) of Portland, Oregon and Daniel James (42) of Los Angeles, California, along with her brother David Harrison (70) of Pleasant Grove, Utah, and sister Andrea Bridgeman (72) of Houston, Texas.

Services will be held at Rose Mortuary at 71555 CA-111, Rancho Mirage, CA 92270, on Saturday, March 28, 2026 at 12pm. All are welcome to celebrate her life. Memorial contributions may be made to Animal Samaritans of Thousand Palms, CA.
