

Bryant Hollis Bradshaw

March 28, 2003 - April 28, 2023

Bryant Hollis Bradshaw, just 20 years old, passed away on Friday, April 28, 2023, in the City of Santa Fe Springs as a result of an industrial accident while working as a construction laborer for a drilling company.

Bryant's father, Rob, his mother, Shea, and his older sister, Kendra, moved to Victorville, CA, in late 2002. Bryant was born a short-time later on March 28, 2003, at St. Mary's hospital in Apple Valley. Bryant lived the majority of his life in Victorville, attending Brentwood Elementary, then middle and high school at Excelsior Charter Schools where he graduated in 2021.

Shortly after moving to Victorville in 2002, Bryant and his family became close, life-long friends with The Jones Family, to whom Bryant was regarded as a Son. Bryant spent a great deal of time with The Jones' and they were his second family; Tim and Shannon his second Father and Mother, and Mitchell, Hailey, and Ty, his other siblings.

Bryant's Aunt Aletha Fulton on his mother's side, his late Uncle Tim, and his cousins Blake, Carter, and Grant, also lived in the high-desert area and were very important in Bryant's life. Bryant frequently visited with them and they were a big influence on Bryant in many ways, including his participation in off-road driving in his beloved Tacoma truck. Bryant was the youngest of this group of cousins, but was an integral part of the Fulton's life and worked in Uncle Tim's machine shop before Blake took-over the shop following Uncle Tim's untimely passing in July of 2021.

Once Shea re-married in 2018, Bryant gained a step-father, Erich Meeker, and step-siblings Reese and Raegan. The Meeker's regarded Bryant very highly and were positively influenced and affected by Bryant's consistent humor, positive outlook, everlasting smile, and happy demeanor that Bryant is so well-known for by all who knew him.

Bryant is survived by his father Rob, mother Shea, sister Kendra and her husband Laine, step-father Erich, step-brother Reese, step-sister Raegan, grandfather Mike, grandmother Caramia, Aunts Aletha, Tara, and Alex, Uncle Mike, Cousins Blake, Carter, Grant, other cousins, and The Jones'.
