

Donna Ann Calvano

June 8, 1960 - January 24, 2022

Donna Ann Calvano Passed away at 61 years of age in Moreno Valley CA, 1/24/2022. We have yet to discover the cause of death as she was in her apartment when she was found with no signs of foul play.

She was born on 6/8/1960 in Long Island New York to Jay and Ruth Reed, 1 of 4 children the only girl with 3 brothers. Donna Participated in the first ever competition with Drum Corp International with the Long Island Kingsmen as a member of the rifle line in 1972.

She graduated from King Academy High school in 1978 then moved to California to be with her Grandparents and Cousin. Shortly afterward, she began her career with McDonald's Inc. as a Team Member, over the next 17 years she would achieve the title General Manager and Trainer.

In the late 80's she met Dominick Calvano at a family party, the 2 hit it off, were married and had their beautiful baby girl, Kristi-Lynn Calvano by 1990 in 1995 Dom and Donna were asked to run a La Salsa in Stateline, NV for the owners of the McDonalds they had previously worked for. From 1997 to 2006

Donna worked as GM for Red Lobster in Apple Valley CA. in 2006 she was Hired As a General Manager

for Del Taco where she was promoted to Regional Trainer, Brand Auditor, and New Store Opening

Director until she passed.

Those who worked with her would have remarked about her attention to detail and high level of expectation that which was inspired by her love for the brand and those she held dear as colleagues.

She is survived by her daughter, son-in-law, and 2 brothers.

She enjoyed watching sports and spending time with her daughter and Son-in-law cooking good food and visiting cool places.

Her memorial will be 10am on January 25th at Rose Mortuary in Rancho Mirage California. Any donations you would like to be made in her name with Alzheimer's of Coachella Valley by visiting
