She was a woman of strength, dedication, humor and heart. She attended the University of San Diego where she furthered her education and developed the strong foundation that would guide her love for learning her whole career.

For over 56 years, she devoted her life to preparing taxes, a profession she truly loved. She viewed her clients as extended family. She had a remarkable gift with numbers and found joy in helping others navigate their financial lives with care and precision, and making sure Uncle Sam didn't get a penny more than they deserved. She was self-taught in accounting and worked at Warner Bros, Embassy Pictures as well as Roberts Consolidate to name a few.

Beyond her work, she had a vibrant personality and a love for life's simple pleasures. She enjoyed spending time at the casinos, where her sharp mind and love of numbers followed her even in play. She loved watching Jeopardy and Wheel of Fortune, EVERY night and could have easily been a contestant who won.

She was also a devoted member of Alcoholics Anonymous (36 years and counting), where she built lasting friendships and her additional family. She had 2 families that she loved and was close to her heart especially her son, Vince Luna. Her journey was one of perseverance and growth, and she was an inspiration to those who knew her.

Above all, she cherished her family. She fiercely loved her children and grandchildren. She will be remembered as a one-of-a-kind Mama, and Granny Franny to the grandkids.

She is survived by her loving children, Rose Chadwick, Tommy Winwood, Lisa Lucero and Delores Lara.
