

Jaime Eberts Hyink

September 21, 1976 - September 22, 2024

Jaime Elizabeth Eberts Hyink, born on September 21, 1976, in Lafayette, LA, passed away on September 21, 2024, in Indio, CA. She is remembered as a loving wife, mother, and compassionate caregiver.

Jaime is survived by her husband, Chad Hyink, and her two daughters, Maddison Elizabeth Eberts and Lexie Melissa Eberts. She also leaves behind her parents, Robert Douglas Eberts (Doug) and Barbara Jean Eberts (Jeanie), as well as her younger brother, David Merrill Eberts. Additionally, she is survived by her two beloved dogs, Dude and Cowboy, who brought immense joy to her life.

Jaime's passion for helping others was evident in her career as a certified nursing assistant, where she dedicated her life to caring for hospice patients. Her warmth and kindness made a significant impact on the lives of those she served, ensuring that their final moments were filled with love and dignity. She approached her work with a deep sense of empathy, providing comfort to both patients and their families during challenging times.

Above all, Jaime's legacy lies in her daughters, Maddison and Lexie. Though their paths diverged over the years, they are a testament to her life. Known for her loving nature and caring spirit, she touched the lives of many and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.
