

Mr. Kevin Rhoades

July 19, 1954 - November 26, 2019

Mr. Kevin Charles Rhoades, 65, was born in Bakersfield, California on July 19, 1954. An incredibly hard worker with a great sense of humor. He followed his passion for electronics from the engineering club in high school to a career in fleet tracking systems. He pursued many interests including gardening, sustainable living and raising poultry, often combining them with electronic projects. His love and generosity to his family was unsurpassed, always offering to help any friend or family member in need. Kevin's greatest joy was spending time with his family, especially his beloved grandchildren. He passed surrounded by family on November 26, 2019 in San Diego, his hometown of 45 years. He is survived by his son, Joseph Rhoades, daughter, Sheri-Ann Adams and three grandchildren. He will be dearly missed by many.
