

Santo Joseph Aloisi, Jr.

April 3, 1956 - March 15, 2025

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ We became members of Santo’s and Tony’s family of friends 25 years ago in the San Francisco gay square dance community. Santo and I served together on the Foggy City Dancers Board of Directors. Lily and I were thrilled to become Bert’s honorary godmothers. We were honored to stand up for their wedding. Santo was a gentle giant of a Bear with a generous heart and loving spirit —and we will miss him from our lives. Rest in Peace, dear friend... you’re meeting your sweet doggie kiddos at the Rainbow Bridge now...hold a place for us and we’ll dance all together once more. Kisses, Judith

Judith Stevenson & Lily Hickman - July 15, 2025 at 02:12 AM

JJ

“ I only knew Santo for a brief time as one of his caregivers. Even though he could be challenging at times, I always felt extra patience and compassion for he and Tony. I wanted Santo to feel heard and cared for. I am sad that I wasn’t able to say goodbye but, I am relieved to know he no longer struggles or suffers. I know he is watching over Tony and all the people who cared for him. God rest your soul Santo. I was a pleasure to know you and care for you. Jim

Jim - April 06, 2025 at 08:58 PM