

Sandra Sue Domenech

September 2, 1944 - September 2, 2022

Desert Hot Springs- Sandra Sue Domenech, 78, died on September 2, 2022 after a lengthy illness at home with her loved ones present. She was born December 17, 1943 in Indianapolis, Indiana the daughter of Wilbur Clifford Sanders and Vera May (Taylor) Godsey. Sandra attended Indianapolis public schools and graduated from George Washington High School, Class of 1963. Following graduation she held different jobs in the city. Sandra married Jerald Wayne Wilson in 1963 and had five children from that union. In 1978 she moved to California and settled in Desert Hot Springs. She worked at Desert Regional Medical Center in various positions and finally trained to be a film librarian in the Radiology Department. In 1989 she met the love of her life TSG Alfred Domenech Sr., USAF (Ret) of New Hampshire. After a three-year long distance romance, he retired from his newspaper job and married her in 1992 and they lived in Desert Hot Springs. In 1994 Sandra transferred to comprehensive Cancer Center and retired on disability in 1998, but volunteered at the Cancer Center and Hanson House from 2002 to 2015 amassing 1,500 hours. She also volunteered for the U.S. Forest Service Fire Lookout for two years at Black Mountain, near Idyllwild, CA. Sandra was a devout Catholic, serving as President of the Holy Altar Society at St. Elizabeth Of Hungary Catholic Church and in many functions of the church. In addition to her parents, Sandra was predeceased by a brother, Wilbur Clifford Sanders Jr.

Survivors include her husband, Alfred, her son, Jerald W. Wilson Jr. (Chris) of Kaysville, UT, four daughters, Sheila Lutzker of Cathedral City, CA, Robin Hufferd (Brad) of Danville, IN, Penny Kaysen (Greg) of Plumas Lake, CA, and Susan Miller (Eric) of Indio, CA; four stepsons, Alfred Domenech Jr. (Mella) of Katonah, NY, Kevin Domenech (Kim) of Nashua, NH, Kenneth Domenech of Desert Hot Springs, and Keith Domenech (Shelley) of Amherst, NH; a stepdaughter, Elizabeth Yanco (Stephen) of the villages, FL; 20 grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren, nephews and nieces. Rose Mortuary & Crematory is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Sandra Sue Domenech

October 05, 2023 at 09:38 PM