“ My little girl not a day goes by that I don't think of you or tell someone about you. It only seems repetitive to continue to say how much I miss you or that I wish you were here. You know how much that is. Your pretty little face, your funny laugh, your cheerfulness, your true friendship. These are but a few of all the things that I miss. I know that your here for me as much as you can be. I feel your presence and I know what you feel like. I think that eternal life is when someone is always talking or thinking about you so your not forgotten. You won't need to worry about that. I hope that I make you proud in the things I do. Rest well my friend for when I catch back up with you it's on like donkey kong.your friend forever Danny.

“ Tracy you will never be forgotten. Your kindness and love for life will always remain in m heart. Mot one minute goes by that I don't think about you. Rest well my little girl. I will catch up with you when the time is right. I will indeed respect your last wishes and fulfill all last requests. It didn't seem as if we had been together for 16 years. I could have spent every minute of everyday with you. I never got tired of being with you. I want to share this poem I wrote you.

My True Best Friend

*Our time seemed short Our love was strong
But in my heart is where you belong
I write these words it's not goodbye up in the clouds I will see you fly
the love we have this love won't end you'll always remain my true best friend.*

Tracy Betta you will be missed but never forgotten.
